

Darian Lamb Signs National Letter-of-Intent With Lady Lions

Darian Lamb, 6' post player, from Faith West Academy in Katy, TX, has signed a National Letter-of-Intent to play for the Southwestern Assemblies of God University women's basketball team.

Lamb has averaged 10.8 P/G, 1.6 Stl/G, 1 A/G, and 7.8 R/G. Lady Eagles are currently 8-2 in District and an overall record of 14-11.

Lamb plans to major in business with a minor in multi-cultural studies. She is the daughter of Bob and Kaci Lamb of Katy, Texas.

Southwestern Assemblies of God University is a private, Christian university in Waxahachie, Texas. Under the leadership of Coach Tiffany Phillips, the Lady Lions is tied for third place in the Sooner Athletic Conference (SAC) with a record of 7-5 and an overall record of 15-9.

(L to R): Assistant Varsity Coach Ayala Adams, SAGU Assistant Coach Lauren Crenshaw, Darian Lamb, Varsity Coach Christina Kurt, and Athletic Director Drew Long.